Mr Jagjit Singh had some important points to make:

A sports club should be formed wherein CD's from the best coaches/ best players are made available that will help students to get some vital tips.

The school should have at least two guest rooms where an Old Boy can come and stay. He was concerned as to why Old Boys are being made to feel that they are not welcome in school.

Welfare of students and teachers needs to be looked into.

The school should consider Tony Daljit Singh's suggestions which was to name the main field after Mr R L Holdsworth and the swimming pool to be named after Mr Gurdial Singh.

Pramod Chawla felt that we must give back to the Society after all that it has given us.
