Planning a visit to Chandbagh? Read this first!

We've all been there: you turn up to School wanting to walk around memory lane and you require all sorts of school chits and permissions. Now, the DSOBS and School's Development and Alumni Relations office have digitized this process on dsobs.net so the process is smooth and hassle-free. Click the 'Plan your visit to the Chandbagh' button and fill out the online form, after logging into the site. Aside from options to use a golf cart at school for disabled or senior citizens, you can also select visiting the archives so you can see your school records too.

There is also a new lounge for Old Boys to rest their weary feet and have a coffee with Rishabh Sharma (553 J, 1994) our friendly director of development and alumni relations (or 'our man in Havana'). You'll find a bunch of treasures in there including Bond's signature pale green-coloured scooter. Check the dsobs.net site for visiting hours.
