

Rohan Chand Thakur (563 O, 2001): IAS

An IAS Officer of the Himachal Pradesh cadre, a graduate from St. Stephens and a post graduate from IIM Ahmedabad, was the esteemed Chief Guest for the closing ceremony of the summer leadership programme this year. He shared the secret to his success, the values of a successful leader and the how one can emerge as a leader in various situations through examples from his dynamic career.

Mudit Tyagi (606 H, 1986): ENGINEER

A physicist, and a computer engineer, Mudit is an entrepreneur and teacher who loves teaching change making skills which are (1) ideation (2) implementation and (3) user acquisition. In association with United World Colleges he started an education program in villages in Maharashtra. As a successful social entrepreneur who spearheaded the developmental programme thereby propelling the dreams of several students from the village, he shared his vision, success story and the scope of social change with the students as a guest speaker during a programme by the America India Foundation.

Shiv Bir Singh (654 J, 1995): MEDIA PSYCHOLOGY

and his wife Dr Rohini Luthra conducted an interactive session with boys at School on "Taking Responsibility of Fake News: How we accept and perpetuate it." The boys learnt how fake news travels seven times faster than headline news, and how to crystallise facts from fiction to inoculate from human fallacies. Mr Singh and Dr Luthra have authored a book entitled Savvy which introduces seminal psychology studies and examples from today's political and business headlines to illuminate why human beings are so ready to put their trust in people, organizations and information that is biased, or outright deceptive, and on the flip side, to doubting credible sources.

Founder's Day Accommodation

As Founder's approaches, many of you will be eager to make that trip back to school for either your jubilee bashes, or as parents and grandparents, or Old Boys, with either your friend groups or families. During the week of festivities, Dehra Dun faces a bit of a crunch when it comes to desired quality accommodation meeting this sudden influx. To avoid missing out on the fun, here's a gentle nudge to get booking those hotel rooms. See you in October!
