

The UAE Region of The DSOBS hosted a get-together at the residence of Bipin Bhatia (417 H, 1986) in Dubai. Doscos from across the UAE attended the event. We thank Bipin and Sonali for their very generous and gracious hospitality.

The President was invited by the School to address the initiative started by Greta Thunberg, a school going girl in Sweden. She started a protest outside the Swedish parliament urging the country's lawmakers to make changes as per commitment made towards restricting and reversing climate change and working towards protecting the environment, in what is billed as the Paris Agreement. Greta bunks school every Friday and sits outside the Swedish parliament. She started alone and now every Friday many people gather outside to protest. The protest is called #FridaysForFuture and protests are held in over 2000 cities in 123 countries. Joining this initiative, children from several schools of the Doon Valley, led by Doscos marched together from the Main Gate to the Rose Bowl to protest the apathy of successive governments the world over, about this very critical issue. President Rahul Kohli gave a very inspiring speech in support of this initiative and offered full support of The DSOBS for the noble cause.

Later in the evening, President Rahul Kohli flew back to Delhi to host a grand farewell party for Jaswinder Singh Bull and Mr. Sheel Sharma. Earthen 'diyas' strategically placed within the corridors of arches of the spot-lit monument cast a magical ambience for a spectacular setting. It was a packed house as the batch of 1986 turned-up in full strength to bid farewell to their batchmate Jaswinder Singh Bull. An evening to remember!

The following day, The DSOBS Inter House Golf Tournament was played at the Jaypee Greens Golf Course in Greater Noida. This event attracts amongst the largest annual outings of the Society. It takes several weeks of planning to conduct a successful single day golf tournament. The Golf Sub-Committee, headed by Tarun Sawhney worked tirelessly to ensure that the event went off well and their efforts resulted in a record numbers of Doscos signing up to play. While all the holes were sponsored and other sponsors chipped in as well. Eventually, it turned out to be a great day of golf, professionally managed, with fabulous goody bags for each golfer and an equally lavish spread
